

Please do not change the IN NO CALL LIST policy. Our home has been so much more relaxed and quiet since being placed on that list. We have never purchased anything from telemarketers. It is a privacy concern when you are bombarded with calls. Let the people decide what they want. If someone wants telemarketers they can still receive them by not signing up. Give us our privacy back. Tammie Bryant